Audo introduces the Sentiment Paper Weight

Colin King's Sentiment Paper Weight transforms the humble pear into a beautiful hand-shaped sculpture that captures the essence of the fruit's rich and ripe beauty. Cast in brass with an antique finish, the weighty design references the use of the pear in art, as an enduring symbol of abundance and femininity. "I have always been drawn to the graceful form of a pear. They frequently revealed themselves to me in still life paintings from artists like Georgia O'Keefe, Cézanne and Vincent Van Gogh," says King on the new design. Placed atop a stack of papers or books or positioned on a shelf or windowsill, the Sentiment Paper Weight is a purposeful piece of natural beauty.

About the Designer

Professionally trained as a dancer, Colin King found himself at the intersection between a dancer's awareness of space and a stylist's impulse to bring it to life before foraying into the realm of product design. Currently based in Tribeca, New York City, he finds himself in a balance between being on set, styling and designing from his studio. Colin has styled for major publications such as Architectural Digest and T Magazine and hosts a myriad clientele within the genres of product and interior design. He is continuously inspired by life's everyday rituals, gestures and imperfections – made beautiful by their ever-evolving presence within a given space. Colin King is the designer behind Interconnect, Audo's monumental candleholder design.
